Entry Deadline: January 6, 2023

Guaranteed T-shirt Deadline:

December 16, 2022

- This show is open to 4-H and FFA members through 12th grade in school, plus younger children of any age. Exhibitors must be able to control and show their own doe or ewe without assistance.
- State show rules will be enforced unless otherwise approved by show superintendents.
- No limit on the number of does or ewes that can be registered. Entry fees are $25 per animal. Late entries are $35 per animal, due the day of in cash.
- Breeding does and ewes must have an official health certificate and scrapie tag.
- Showmanship will be broken down by grade in school with grades being combined based on entries. Showmanship will start with the youngest division of exhibitors. There is a $10 showmanship entry fee.
- All does and ewes will be shown as commercial and will be broken into classes by weight.
- The Top 3 Georgia Born and Bred animals will be selected after completion of the commercial doe and ewe classes and BEFORE the final drive of the commercial doe and ewe shows respectively. Georgia Born and Bred requires no separate entry fee, but “yes” must be indicated on the entry form for a doe or ewe to be eligible. The top 2 placing Georgia Born and Bred animals from each commercial class will be eligible for the Georgia Born and Bred Top 3.
- Showing off trailers is allowed and generators (used outside the barn only) are encouraged. Spots will be assigned on a first come first serve basis. Pen usage in the barn will be $10 per pen and will be assigned by the order in which entry forms are received.
- Exhibitors must show their own animals in all classes unless they have more than 1 in a weight class. In that case, only exhibitors entered in this show may show for them.
- Does will show first on odd-numbered years and ewes will show first on even-numbered years.
- Showmanship will begin with the youngest age group.
- No person other than exhibitors, the judge, show committee members, or representatives will be allowed in the show ring.
- Payout will be based on the number of entries.
- Excessive force or abuse of animals will NOT be tolerated!
- The Ice Ice Baby Show Committee reserves the right to review the rules and make changes if necessary. Decisions made by the show committee are final.
- The show committee nor any affiliate of Jefferson City Schools will be responsible for loss or damage of any kind.
