Kody Lucher is from Canyon, TX. He raises Registered Brangus and American Cross Cattle and is a Beef Specialist with Westway Feed Products. Kody was an All-American Livestock judge at Blinn Jr. College and Texas Tech and was a member of Texas Tech's 2011 National Champion Team. Kody has judged shows across the country and has raised or exhibited multiple national and state winning cattle the past 10 years.

Robert Scott has been a County Extension Agent for 27 years, where he currently serves in Lubbock County on the south plains of Texas. Robert graduated from Tarleton State University with his bachelor's in agriculture education in 1991 and his master's in animal science in 1997 from Sul Ross State University. He's been married to Wendy for 29 years and they have 2 sons- Sterling, who is a 2019 graduate of Texas Tech University and is also a County Extension Agent in Texas and Cooper, a freshman at Abilene Christian University.

Trevor Rosso is originally from Deland Florida. He's a graduate of Butler Community College in El Dorado, Kansas where he was a member of a national champion junior college livestock judging team who also had the honors to be named 2018 team of the year. Trevor now attends Texas tech university and is a member of the livestock judging and meat animal evaluation teams. Trevor works full time for Brandon bird cattle company, where he assists in overseeing the show barn along with the cow side of the operation.
